<span style="color:
#99cc00;">Unbelief is when you make up your own mind about what God can and can't do or what God won't do and how He does and doesn't operate. Unbelief finds its own methods for accomplishing God's business -- both corporately and personally. As we grow in our willingness to hear God's voice and carry out Jesus-type ministry, we're challenged to face areas in which we've not had previous experience.

<span style="font-size:
10pt;">We look at our own psychological and emotional resources and realize that they are inadequate for the demands of life. So we begin to see this enormous gap of what we can do in our own strength versus what we can do in the Holy Spirit. That gap is bridged when we step out in faith knowing that God is going to take care of issues. So, increased faith is one thing that will help you overcome the obstacle [stronghold] of unbelief.

Beloved reader, if you'll get a pencil and a piece of paper to take the assessment below. For each statement that applies to you, please make a check mark.
<br
21 SYMPTOMS OF THE UNBELIEF STRONGHOLD - Take The Assessment

Now

1 - I find myself being disappointed, even offended that God doesn't seem to work as I believe He should or answer prayers the way that I thought He should.

<span style="font-family:
tahoma,arial,Helvetica,sans-serif;">This stronghold is on the rise in society and being triggered in believers given the economic decline and some of the difficulties people are facing. Remember God's ways are higher than our ways. God always overrides the enemy's hand in a unique and different way for your life.
<br
2 - When I hear of others experiencing God's presence and power or how their prayers were answered, my first reaction is to analyze or even disclaim what they are saying.

3 - I try to pass off a critical spirit as being a berean spirit. The berean spirit is the discerning and protecting spirit. Typically pastors struggle with this.
4 - I'm critical of the direction and methods of church and ministry leaders.
5 - I tend to be suspicious.
6 - I wonder why the Holy Spirit doesn't seem to talk to me or use me as powerfully as someone else.
7 - I doubt that God really speaks to or use others as they claim because I don't see Him speaking to me or using me in that way.
8 - I tend to be self sufficient and independent from others. If I'm honest about it, I tend to be self sufficient and independent from God.
9 - I first perceive people and situations as impossible, rather than looking at them as possible with God.
10 - I'm not confident that I have spiritual authority through Jesus Christ. There's a lack of confidence that I can do all things through Christ who strengthens you.
11 - I'm not motivated to pray consistently, and I have very little interest in spiritual warfare prayer.
12 - Prayer is usually a last resort for me.
13 - I succumb to habitual behaviors and addictions [coping mechanisms] to comfort me when I feel discouraged, afraid or hopeless.
14 - I think my situations, my fears, my sins, my marriage, my spiritual life, my _____ will never change.
15 - I panic when I receive bad or distressing news, or even the suggestion that something is bad or distressing can occur. I just fall apart at bad news.
16 - I tend to be worried or anxious about many things.
17 - I fear that my children or family member will never be saved.
18 - I try to control people, situations and even God because I'm afraid to let go and trust Him to care for them, to save them, to protect, to lead them.
19 - I'm skeptical of the present-day supernatural work of the Holy Spirit. For example, praying in your heavenly prayer language daily or that the Holy Spirit still heals people or that miracles, signs and wonders still occur or that you have spiritual gifts specifically placed within you from God that you are to be developing and operating in weekly.

Please do not confuse the nine spiritual gifts with the nine fruit of the spirit or the five ministry gifts or the seven motivational gifts. All four sets of these givings are different.

20 - I fear taking the risk of praying and ministering boldly with others in areas like healing or spiritual freedom.

21 - I fear stepping out in faith in response to confirmed revelation that God has given to me or to others in the body of Christ.

Now, you can tally your check marks.

If you have 1 - 4 checks, you're in the low percentile.
If you have 5 - 10 checks, you're in the 50% percentile.
If you have 11 - 16 checks, you're moving into some issues with the stronghold of unbelief.
If you have 17 - 21 checks, you are very much operating in the stronghold of unbelief.

Remember, as your faith grows, doubt and unbelief will be overcome. How does your faith grow Beloved? By the hearing of The Word of God.
